MASTERY IN ENGLISH PROGRAMME

INTRODUCTION

The Mastery in English Programme (MEP) is a preparatory course designed according to a standard and the latest IELTS level to equip the student for the Certificate of English Language Competency and Foundation Studies Examination that will enable them to continue their undergraduate or postgraduate studies at any or selected University in Malaysia.

The programme is conducted intensively for a duration of 4 months encompassing 600 credits hours. The MEP highlights English language skills at both introductory and intermediate levels. This programme focuses on skills suitable for learners of English as a Second or Foreign Language. The MEP also engages students in making meaning of the whole course by organizing language and other foundation studies thematically. Students will explore different aspects of similar yet contemporary themes for each skill.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- International students who want to
- i. Master the English Language
 - ii. Sit for IELTS
 - iii. Achieve excellent results in IELTS
 - iv. Continue studies in Universities in Malaysia.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

The MEP strives to achieve the following objectives:

- To prepare international students for the Certificate of English Language Competency and Foundation Studies Examination.
- To expose students to a variety of language skills and other foundation study courses developed systematically through communicative-interactive exercises.
- To explore thematic links across the core strands (EAP, Reading, Writing, Listening & Speaking) allowing the recycling of vocabulary and grammatical structures.
- To discover high-interest topics, stimulate students' imagination and encourage critical thinking and personal expression.
- To help build, develop and improve students' proficiency in English and simultaneously achieve both accuracy and fluency in the language.
